

RELATIONSHIP LUCK – CHEAT SHEET

Activate Southwest – for love and marriage luck

For those having difficulties in their relationship, would like a commitment or to find a partner, this is the area to encourage love, passion, and companionship. Enhance the Southwest corner of the main rooms and bedroom with love symbolism.

There are many enhancers for activating this area. The Double Happiness symbol is one which can be hung on the wall in the bedroom – it is usually red. Brides in Asia, almost always wear something red. It is considered to auspicious to do so because red is representative of the Fire element, thus, to use this colour activates this section.

Display peonies for love. The peony, ‘the king of flowers’, is a symbol of good fortune associated with women and romance. It is believed the peony keeps love and romance alive. If you have difficulty finding them, a picture will suffice.

For romance and relationship luck to be enhanced, Mandarin Duck figurines are also beneficial as ducks symbolise fidelity and happiness. They must always be kept in pairs and sitting side-by-side with their heads facing each other. They are best placed in the Southwest corner of your bedroom.

Alternatives would be:

- Heart shaped objects
- Anything in pairs, e.g., red candles, happy pictures of you as a couple
- Romantic or erotic pictures
- Sensual figurines
- Fresh flowers
- Sculpture of man and woman in loving embrace
- Decorate the bedroom in red during the early years of the relationship. Red represents passion and strong Yang energy and brings luck to those wanting children. If red is too strong use pink or peach.

Things to avoid:

- Mirrors
- TV
- Anything that suggests water.
- Do not hang paintings of children in your bedroom as it symbolises descendant luck, hang only in West section of the home for descendent luck.

ACTIVATE YOUR PEACH BLOSSOM LUCK FOR LOVE

Feng Shui can prescribe a simple formula for helping singles who are looking for love and romance – it is as easy as activating your 'Peach Blossom Luck'.

Simply place an image of your Peach Blossom animal (derived by your Chinese animal sign) in its correct location of your bedroom and this will activate your Peach Blossom luck.

Try to use the most beautiful jewel encrusted animal you can find as this will further represent the kind of love luck you are searching for and deserve.

If you are a TIGER, HORSE or DOG place a Rabbit in the East of your bedroom.

If you are an OX, SNAKE or ROOSTER place a Horse in the South of your bedroom.

If you are a RAT, DRAGON or MONKEY place a Rooster in the West of your bedroom.

If you are a RABBIT, GOAT or PIG place a Rat in the North of your bedroom.
